Get connected with music schools in europe

With emu4you you can:

emu4you is a service by the European Music School Union (EMU).

emu4you is an information platform, all about European music schools and their environment. It deals with content which is of interest for other music schools in European countries.

- Search the information database
- Get information automatically by email
- Publish your own information
- Portrait yourself and your school

emu4you.eu for principals:

- Find and develop partnerships between music schools in Europe
- Publish and find „Best-Practices Models“ e.g. fund raising
- Present your school and your work to the European music schools
- Gather knowledge on the musical education in other countries

emu4you.eu for teachers:

- Access to the area of musical education in Europe
- Participate in the development of music education in Europe
- Present yourself and promote your own work
- Define your musical interest and find valuable information

Some examples?

- If you look for an pupils exchange project?
Then search our market offers.
- If you have made a valuable experience with your music school?
Then share it by publishing it through emu4you.
- If you offer a special course for music teachers?
Then publish your event.
- If you picked up some interesting news? Then share it with us.

And, oh, yes: emu4you is free!
