- b) to co-operate by exchanging information on all questions concerning music schools
- c) to promote exchanges of student delegations, teachers, pupils, orchestras, choirs, other music groups and the like
- d) to raise the interest of the competent authorities and the public sphere on questions of music education in general and to encourage amateur music and music studies
- e) to help creating and developing nation-wide federations of music schools
- f) to keep up systematic contacts with interested international Institutions such as the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation (UNESCO), the International Music Council (IMC), European partners and other organisations

Article III – Purpose

The association follows exclusively and intuitive non profit intentions in terms of the paragraph of the “tax-deductible intentions” of the Tax Code. The association works selflessly; it does not pursue in the first place own economical purposes. All means flowing to the association have to be used to fulfill the objectives and tasks defined in these statutes and are not to be returned to members if they leave the association. The members do not receive allowances from means of the association. No person shall benefit from expenditures which do not correspond to the aims of the association or through inappropriately high allowances.

Article IV – Membership

1. National associations or federations of Music Schools from all European countries or their national representatives may be ordinary members of the EMU. Only one organization per country may be member.
2. Each ordinary member shall notify his designated delegate or deputy to the EMU.
3. The General Assembly shall decide on the admission of new members.
4. Membership ends by resignation notified in writing to the Board three months before the end of the business year.
5. National music school associations or federations in the process of being formed and/or their representatives may be invited to EMU events, as well as institutions from non-member countries.
6. Firms and private persons may be admitted as supporting members if they support EMU with a minimum annual contribution. Supporting members shall not have the right to vote. The duration of their membership shall not be limited in time.
7. The General Assembly may appoint individuals as Honorary Members. Honorary Members may participate in General Assemblies and other public EMU events. The Board may entrust Honorary Members with specific tasks. Honorary Members shall not have the right to vote. The duration of their membership shall not be limited in time.
8. The General Assembly has the authority to admit national associations or similar organizations as observers. The definition of the observer status and the procedures for obtaining observer member status is established in an internal rule of procedure. Observer members shall not have the right to vote.
